LAGER LABEL HAS UPSET WREXHAM LABEL LAGER YN SIOMI WRECSAM

Wrexham Lager Brewery.
Bragdy Lager Wreccsam.

The decision, announced last week, by parent company Ind Coope, to phase out the world famous Wrexham Lager Beer label has led to a storm of protest in the town. Reactions to the announcement showed the town was in no two minds. Wrexham's first citizen, the Mayor, Cllr. Evans said of the change 'It is definitely a loss of prestige for Wrexham. I don't often have a drink but when I do, it is a pint of Wrexham Lager.' A local man summed up the general mood 'Anyone who knows anything about beer has heard of Wrexham Lager. I've travelled about this country a bit and Wrexham is best known for its beer and its football team.' (August 1957)

Mae'r penderfyniad, a gyhoeddwyd yr wythnos ddiwethaf gan riant-gwmni Ind Coope, i raddol ddiwyddu label cwrw byd-enwog Lager Wreccsam wedi arwain at don o brotest yn y dref. Dangosodd ymatebion i'r cyhoeddiad bod y dref yn unfryd. Meddai dinesydd blaenaf Wreccsam, y Maer, Y Cyngorydd Evans am y newid 'Mae'n bendant yn colli bri i Wreccsam. Fyddaf i ddim yn cael llymheid yn aml ond, pan fyddaf, peint o Lager Wreccsam yw hwnnw.' Crynhodd dyn lleol y teimlad cyffredinol 'Mae pawb sy'n gwybod rhywbeth am gwrw wedi clywed am Lager Wreccsam. Rwyf wedi teithio tipyn o amgylch y wlad yma ac mae Wreccsam yn fwyaf adnabyddus am ei chwrrw a'i thim pêl-droed.' (Awst 1957)
