Dear Mam Dada + all

I recieved the letter this morning. It is Mayors Sunday, Sunday because it was read out in chuch and the head saids.

Please come because it is you made a mistake. I glad that Lloyd Geoge was in Bridgend. Write a telligram and send it to me tomorrow.
Please

I am quiet all right thanks. I have no more news this time. Good bye.

Your Son
Jim.

I am breaking my heart

expected her over today.
Thanks for all the letters I've had this week. Are thier many people in Woolworths, when they are open. And how is the trade in the House.
I had have a little note of tuck in the letter, send it over by Wenes day.

Jim

Dear Mam + Dada + all

I am glad to hear you all are quiet well. Thanks very much for the gloves which you sent, I was frosing in the mornings now and will be glad to be home six weeks today. I will be telling you all about my adventure. You are coming down to lowbridge on a fortnight today. Was there fighting, in the Skewer match Saturday.

I am sending that Photo of the school home, have you had it yet. I have had a great time up Auntie's house today.
Before we talk about pleasuse, I must think of the exam. I am plessed to hear the Idea of other six weeks We are breaking ice for water now. Uncle and Auntie are quiet all right also Micky. When is Sally coming over?
