

Many boys of the school have given their assistance in various ways and we should like to thank them most warmly.

God Save the Queen will be sung before Curtain Rise and Mae Hen Wlad Fy Nhadau at the end of the play.

Many will no doubt be surprised at this year's choice of play, but Romeo and Juliet, though best known as a tragedy of young love, is far more than that. It has excitement, comedy, characterisation and lovely poetry. Above all, it illustrates what so often seems to be a principle of this imperfect world—that sacrifice is inevitable for the sake of peace.
