

Cowbridge Civic Sunday

WITH all the traditional pomp and pageantry which surrounds civic events in the Borough of Cowbridge, the Mayor, Coun. David Jones, held his Civic Service on Sunday morning. The parade moved off just before 11 a.m. to march from the town hall to the Church of the Holy Cross. Marshalled by Police Sergeant George Maund, the parade contained members of the British Legion, Scouts, Guides and members of the Boys' Brigade.

A dozen civic heads marched in the procession ahead of the blue robed councillors and red robed aldermen.

Bringing up the rear of the parade came the

Mayor accompanied by the town clerk, Mr. J. Thornley Taylor, his chaplain, Rev. Canon S. F. Mogford

CHURCH

R.D., Vicar of Cowbridge, and the Rev. Keith Jones, Pastor of Ramoth Baptist Church.

At the church, the service was conducted by Canon Mogford and the Rev. K. Jones.

The parade reformed after the service and returned to the town hall where the Mayor thanked the people of the town for accompanying him to church.

Later Coun. Jones entertained his principal guests to a buffet lunch.

THE MAYOR OF COWBRIDGE, Coun. David Jones, chats with the Town Clerk, Mr. J. Thornley Taylor, during the parade.

ESCORTED BY MR. GEORGE BOND, a mace-bearer, the Mayor, Coun. David Jones; the Town Clerk, Mr. J. Thornley Taylor; the Mayor's Chaplain, Canon S. F. Mogford; and the Rev. Keith Jones, march from the Town Hall to the Holy Cross Church.
