

Crowds flocked to Birds new centre

Cowbridge has probably not seen anything like it since the Romans came to the town.

The opening of Birds' new Home Centre attracted people from throughout the Vale and the Valleys.

"We were absolutely delighted with the response," said Mr Jeffrey Bird.

"People came from as far away as Merthyr Tydfil and at one point there were over 150 cars packed into the car park.

"And they must have all enjoyed themselves because we go through plenty of wine!"

Aside from the wine, six youngsters won tickets to see "Superted and the Comet of the Spooks" Christmas show at the New Theatre, Cardiff, with Superted on hand to present the lucky winners with their prizes.

During the afternoon the crowds were also entertained by the RAF Band, St Athan, and some mouth watering cookery displays by a local Chef du Cuisine kept the crowds enthralled

"Although it's early days, it would certainly seem that our aim to provide a full range of fitted kitchens, tiles and home extensions to complement our Garden Centre got off to a flying start," said Mr Bird.

"The combination of advertising on HTV with full page adverts in the GEM worked very well."
