

Clearing

2001

Choreographer

Zvi Gotheiner (Israel/USA)

The piece was part of a series of works created by the choreographer that explored the relationship between man and nature. There was no narrative to the work, instead a set of forest myths, legends and stories were simply woven together with man's experience. The term 'clearing' referred to the space between the trees where scenes took place.

Dancers

Nora Alberdi

Yvette Halfhide

Tim Blowfield

Chris Harrison-Kerr

Deborah Ford

Emma Lewis

Romain Guion

Phil Williams

Original score

Scott Killian

Creatives

Costume Design: Naoko Nagata. Lighting Design: Grant Barden

Diversions

The Dance Company of Wales

Cwmni Dawns Cymru

Photo: Zvi Gotheiner and dancers in rehearsal
© Roy Campbell-Moore